Keith or Michael,

I caught a couple very, very minor edits that I would normally not ask you to change, but since this may be read widely, I think you should fix them.

You started two sentences with a number, which is not grammatically correct:

In the Summary of Findings section, second paragraph, change the sentence starting with "30" to "Thirty"

In the Review of Other Aerial Photographs section, change the sentence starting with "27" to "Twenty-seven"

Here's an even more minor edit: In the References section, since it looks like you tried to sort the items by date, please move the 3/15/1990 date up to the second spot.

Please send back to Loren and I to sign and forward on to JL.

Thanks for all your work on this,
John
